

THE COMPANY

Linxis Sdn Bhd, a growing customized software development company which has started involvement in software development services since 2000. With its wealth of experience and consistent track records, coupled with the new energetic top management team, Linxis has become a leading customized software provider.

Linxis develops a complete business and production management software, PM II - ERP and AssetWorks-Asset management software which are operational and user friendly using the latest programming and database technology to both medium and large enterprises (Annual Turnover RM 10mil-500mil). The software has been implemented in industries such as Manufacturing, Asset management and maintenance services, Supply Chain, Distribution and project engineering as well as precision engineering.

The application software, which is used and run in various segments of Industries and services;

PartsManager for Automotive and component/parts assembly and manufacturing industry;

ProductionManager for Building and steel material process factory;

ProjectManager for Palm Oil plant and Oil & Gas project based manufacturing Industries;

AssetWorks for assets such as equipment and vehicle tracking, managing and maintaining services

It consists of Sales Management, Production Planning, Procurement, Inventory Management, Production/WIP, Outsources/Contractors, Logistic tracking, Warehousing, Costing, Accounting, Asset management and Project Management modules

